

The Ministry of the Russian Federation for Civil Defence, Emergencies and Elimination of Consequences of Natural Disasters

---

10.12.2019 16:12

Rescuers from Kursk win gold at fire applied and rescue sports contest

The Main Office of the Russian Emergencies Ministry in Kursk Region has won the gold at the fire applied and rescue sports contest of Central regional center of the Russian Emergencies Ministry.

The backbone of the winning team was made of firefighters of the fire station of 1st department of the federal fire service in Kursk Region, for whom it was not the first time when they took part in large competition.

“Such sports require excellent fitness and consist of a complex of diverse means used in fire-extinguishing. The guys from Kursk were the strongest from the very beginning,” – noted deputy head of staff training of the Main Office of the Russian Emergencies Ministry in Kursk Region Vadim yeskov.