

The Ministry of the Russian Federation for Civil Defence, Emergencies and Elimination of Consequences of Natural Disasters

10.12.2019 16:12

The number of victims at the Sayan-Shushenskaya hydro-electric power station rose up to 47 people, 28 people are unaccounted 19 bodies of the perished Sayan-Shushenskaya hydro-electric power station workers were found, the total number of victims reached the number of 47. At present, 28 people are unaccounted. The accident management works at the Sayan-Shushenskaya hydro-electric power station go on non-stop, more than 2 thousand people are working at the site of the accident. Maintenance personnel from the “RusGydro” branch—Bureyskaya, Volzhskaya, Zhigulevskaya, Zeyskaya, Saratovskaya hydro-electric power stations arrived at the site of the accident to take part in accident management works. The bailing from the turbine room, inspection of cleared from water rooms, clearing up the debris in the turbine room, dismantling of the damaged structures as well as cleaning of the engineering and utility service rooms are conducted with double force.

4.5 thousand cubic meters of metal and reinforced concrete structures have been removed from the station. The hydraulic structures hydromechanical equipment are being checked. The special program of checking the equipment has been worked out which is being carried on during the clearing up the debris process.