

The Ministry of the Russian Federation for Civil Defence, Emergencies and Elimination of Consequences of Natural Disasters

10.12.2019 16:12

The number of victims of the Sayan-Shushenskaya hydro-electric power station accident increased to 22 people

21 August 2009, at 08.00 Moscow time the bodies of three more people were found during the accident management works at the Sayan-Shushenskaya hydro-electric power station, thus, the number of victims is now 22 people, 53 people are unaccounted. The search and rescue works continue.

More than 2 thousand people and 178 items of equipment are engaged in accident elimination.